Dominion Riverrock announces full music lineup for 2013 fest

Soulive, Lettuce, Anders Osborne, and Toots & The Maytals to headline

RICHMOND, VA – Dominion Riverrock announced today the full list of music acts performing at this year's festival. On Friday, May 17th Soulive will kick off the weekend at 7:30 p.m. followed by Lettuce at 9:00 p.m. On Saturday, May 18th, the two headliners will be Anders Osborne at 7:00 p.m. and Grammy-nominee Toots & The Maytals at 9:00 p.m. The fifth annual sports and river life festival will be held on Brown's Island in Richmond, VA May 17-19, 2013. All concerts are free and open to the public.

Soulive, a soul-jazz organ trio of guitarist Eric Krasno, drummer Alan Evans and keyboardist Neal Evans, will bring blistering solos and grooves that don't quit to the stage at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, May 17 to kick off the festival weekend. In their 13 years together, Soulive has followed the muse in the direction of hip-hop, R&B, blues and rock.

Immediately following Soulive, the seven-piece Brooklyn-based juggernaut Lettuce will take over the stage. These modern day rulers of old school funk will bring a decidedly raging slab of relentless groove, hyper-charged syncopation and psychedelized soul anthems to Dominion Riverrock.

New Orleans' Anders Osborne will be the first headliner to perform on Saturday night at 7:00 p.m. Osborne's music ranges from muddy backwater blues to upbeat country rock, and fills in many of the gaps in between.

Five-time Grammy nominee Toots & The Maytals will take the stage at 9:00 p.m. on Saturday evening. Toots Hibbert is one of the great voices of Jamaica; a legend whose career spans every development in Jamaican music, from ska through rock-steady to reggae. Toots and the Maytals have helped to chart the course of Jamaican music. The combination of great reggae rhythms, heartfelt vocals, and soulful gospel influence remains potent and powerful.

In addition to four major headliners, the Dominion Riverrock music schedule is jam packed with other local and regional talent.

About Dominion Riverrock

Dominion Riverrock, organized by Venture Richmond and the Sports Backers, is the nation's premier outdoor lifestyle festival, bringing athletes, spectators, musicians, and even dogs to Brown's Island for a three-day festival against the backdrop of downtown Richmond's urban riverfront. The festival features a variety of outdoor sports including trail running, kayaking, biking, bouldering, slacklining, stand up paddleboarding, and dog jumping. The event was designed to promote Richmond's unique riverfront, downtown trails and whitewater rapids to outdoor enthusiasts. As a result of the creation of Dominion Riverrock, there is a stronger appreciation for the value of outdoor recreation throughout the entire Richmond region.

Dominion Riverrock is open to the public and is free to all spectators. For event registration and further information about Dominion Riverrock 2013, please visit www.dominionriverrock.com.
